CELEBRATING AT HOME BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

The real presence of Jesus in us (Mark 14:12-16, 22-26)

This resource is presented by the Carmelites of Australia & Timor-Leste at a time when we cannot gather together as we usually do to celebrate the Eucharist. We are conscious that Christ is present not only in the Blessed Sacrament but also in the Scriptures and in our hearts. Even when we are on our own we remain part of the Body of Christ.

In the room you decide to use for this prayer you could have a lighted candle, a crucifix and the Bible. These symbols help keep us mindful of the sacredness of our time of prayer and can help us feel connected with our local worshipping communities.

This text is arranged with parts for a leader and for all to pray, but the leader's parts can be shared among those present.

As you use this prayer know that the Carmelites will be remembering in our prayer all the members of our family at this time.

Sign of the Cross

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Lord is here, present among us.

We are gathered with the whole Church in this moment of prayer.

Preparing to hear the Word

We have been called by God to be the Church,

the Body of Christ in this world.

We are not a building, but a people, gathered and grounded in the Word of God,

the love of Christ,

and the unity of the Holy Spirit.

Lord Jesus, you are the Bread of Life,

the Wine of Compassion,

the Word made flesh.

Scripture Reading (Mark 14:12-16, 22-26)

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparation for you to eat the Passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, 'The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the Passover with my disciples?' He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared for the Passover.

And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it', he said, 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the Kingdom of God.'

After the psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

Reflection - The real presence of Jesus in us

It seems a bit odd to be celebrating the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ at a time when so many cannot attend Mass and receive the Eucharist. Yet I think that this time has actually been a blessing for us.

When what we have been used to suddenly changes, it is challenging. It is hard to deal with the sense of loss. But if we can transcend the moment it can become an opportunity. I'm thinking of the many people, faced with new situations over the past few months, who saw new opportunities.

Wine-makers producing hand sanitiser.

Restaurants and cooking schools producing meals for vulnerable people. Clothing manufacturers making face masks. They didn't try to do what they had always done. They did something new, practical and useful with what they had.

That's what we have been doing too. We have been allowing ourselves to feast on the words of the Gospel, to explore the mystery of God's action within our hearts and our call to be God's love in the world.

We are very used to thinking about the Real Presence of Jesus being in the Blessed Sacrament. But the real presence of Christ is also in the community when it gathers in his name to feast on the Word of Scripture, to recall what Jesus said and did at the Last Supper (not only the words over bread and wine, but also the washing of the feet), when it shares the food of the Eucharist together, when it goes out and continues to break and pour out that food in acts of loving kindness, in soothing and nourishing words which brings others to life.

The Eucharist is not an object to be looked at, but an action to be done so that the living presence of Jesus continues to touch and heal.

Maybe we need to think more deeply about the real presence of Jesus being in real, living human beings. Bread and Wine have no eyes to gaze with love, no face with which to smile, no mouth to speak soothing words, no arms to hold the grieving and the sick, or to lend a hand, no ears to hear the pain. But we do.

So we are called to become the Eucharist that feeds those around us with the nourishment of breadth of heart and vision, respect, love, compassion, hope and forgiveness.

May we become what we receive. (St Augustine)

Prayers of Intercession

Eternal God,
as we recognise and honour the presence of your Son in the Eucharist, may we also recognise and honour his presence in each other.

May we break the Bread in justice and peace,
and share the Cup in kindness and love.

As we fast from Eucharist at this time,
help us feast on your Word.

Lord's Prayer

Formed by the teaching and example of Jesus, we pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Closing Prayer

Gracious God of beauty, truth and goodness, you redeem and renew us.
Continue to live deeply within us and through us
so that your love and healing can continue to touch and transform our world.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Blessing

May the grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ,
the love of God,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, remain with us always.
